

SoleFest 2005

Springfield, MO

October 21-23

Music by Bobbing For Eels

Sam Amidon is a talented fiddler whose style is lean and muscular...and is extremely eloquent. He is well known for his performance with Popcorn Behavior

Sam Bartlett plays mandolin and tenor banjo. He has been a member of Wild Asparagus, Uncle Gizmo, Mr. Danger and The Monks.

Mark Roberts has been playing Irish music for 25 years. He plays flute, banjo, whistle and guitar. He has played with the bands Touchstone and the Red Clay Ramblers.

Calling by Peter Amidon

Peter is widely respected in the traditional arts of calling contra dance, storytelling and harmony singing.

Accommodations

Limited homestays available. Register and reserve early with Jean Stehle: Phone 417-725-1904
Check website for suggested motel options.

Weekend Registration $65

Register by October 3 - Save $10. $55

Schedule

Friday October 21

Dance 8:00 -12:00 $15

Saturday, October 22

6 Workshops $8 each

10:00 - 11:30 Choice: Waltz or Art

1:00 - 2:30 Choice: Swing or Storytelling

2:45 - 4:15 Choice: Contra or Musicians

Concert and Dance $15

7:00 - 8:00 Concert ($5 for concert only)

8:30 - 11:30 Dance (Costumes Welcome)

Sunday, October 23

Brunch and Dance $15

10:00 -11:30 Famous Gourmet Brunch

12:00 - 2:00 Farewell Dance

All events on MSU campus.

Parking in designated lots. See map on reverse.

Sunday Brunch at Greenwood Lab School.

After Dance Party TBA - Bring a snack to share.

Information: Website www.springfieldcontra.org E-mail springfieldcontra@hotmail.com Phone 417-864-6238

Co-sponsored by Traditional Dance and Music Society and MSU Dept. of Health, Physical Education and Recreation