The Monks

The Monks are Indiana's most celebrated old-time string band. They've dazzled dancers in every corner of the US, at festivals in St. Croix, and venues across Ireland. They've also headlined the prestigious Festival of American Fiddle Tunes in Washington State. Claudio Buchwald and Sam Bartlett provide a firecracker melody section, an exciting interweaving of fiddle and elegant three finger banjo playing. Abby Ladin on string bass and special guest Jim Nelson on guitar power the vibrant back line. This is a quintessential dance-band, pulling, coaxing, and pushing dancers into flowing ecstasy. Pulitzer Prize winning novelist Annie Proulx once wrote, "The Monks make people want to move to Indiana."
